WEALTH MANAGEMENT

BRIAN KREMEN

Business Development Officer

Brian joined Laird Norton Wealth Management in 2011. As part of the Business Development team, he builds relationships with individuals and organizations in Seattle and elsewhere that seem likely to benefit from LNWM's unique client service model. A Seattle native, Brian draws on more than 40 years of legal and business experience to articulate LNWM's integrated solutions, which can make a positive difference for high-net-worth individuals, families and private business owners.

Prior to joining Laird Norton Wealth Management, Brian was with Zachary Scott, a Seattle-based investment bank that works with a broad array of privately held, middle-market companies primarily in the Pacific Northwest. Brian also served as a specialist in business ownership transition planning at the Seattle office of Moss Adams, a regional accounting and business consulting firm.

Brian holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Washington. Brian served as a board member of Temple De Hirsch Sinai and has been an active member of its Investment Committee for more than 25 years. He also was a board member of the Washington State Jewish Historical Society. In addition, Brian has volunteered at Senior Services, a non-profit organization that supports older adults, and at Northwest Harvest.
