DANA REKOW

Managing Director of Client Services

Dana Rekow joined Laird Norton Wealth Management in 2009 and is the managing director of client services. Dana oversees the client services teams and manages several client relationships of his own. He is charged with constantly improving the experiences Laird Norton Wealth Management clients have with the firm.

He has more than 20 years of finance experience with expertise in investment and accounting management, including 15 years in various senior and management roles at Russell Investments. He recently served as a Senior Client Executive for the Retirement Sales division at Russell and was also a Regional Director that worked primarily with investment advisors across the United States at the firm. Prior to joining Russell, Dana was an accountant manager at the Seattle office of Deloitte & Touche.

Dana is a certified public accountant and graduated from Seattle Pacific University with a bachelor's in accounting. He is currently serving on the executive advisory council at Seattle Pacific University.