

Books with Major Money Messages

Ages 3 to 8

- The Berenstain Bears Get the Gimmies (1988)
- The Berenstain Bears' Trouble with Money (1983)
- Mike Mulligan and His Steam Shovel (1997) by Virginia Lee Burton
- One Grain of Rice: A Mathematical Folk Tale (1997) by Demi
- How Much is a Million? (2004) by David Schwartz
- What Do People Do All Day? (1968) by Richard Scarry

Ages 9 to 14

- Growing Money: A Complete Investing Guide for Kids (2010) by Gail Karlitz
- The Young Investor (2010) by Katherine Bateman
- The New Totally Awesome Money Book for Kids (2007) by Arthur Bochner

Ages 13 to 18

- The Motley Fool Investment Guide for Teens (2002) by David and Tom Gardner

Late Teens to Early 20s

- The Wealthy Barber (1997) by David Chilton
- Rich by Thirty (2008) by Lesley Scorgie

For Parents

- Raising Financially Fit Kids, Revised (2013) by Joline Godfrey
- How Not to Be Your Child's ATM (2003) by Nathan Dungan
- The Opposite of Spoiled (2015) by Ron Lieber
- Inspired Philanthropy: Creating a Giving Plan (2007) by Tracy Gary and Kim Klein

Games with Major Money Messages

- Monopoly Junior by Hasbro – Ages 5 to 8
- Big Pay Day by Winning Moves – Ages 8 and up
- The Game of Life by Hasbro – Ages 9 and up
- Candy Crush and Farmville – online games and apps for ages 9 and up

Online Resources

- Biz Kids – great kid-friendly stories and videos.
- Motley Fool – very fun site for those who know stock-market basics.
- “Share Save Spend” advice from Nathan Dungan.
- Seattle company Moonjar's cool piggy banks, games and kits.
- Learnvest's guide on How Much Young Adults Should Strive to Spend & Save – The 50/20/30 Rule.
- Bankrate's Credit Card Repayment Calculator.
- The official college cost comparison guide from the U.S. government.
- Mint.com budgeting app and website.

What's It Like to Invest in Stocks

- Google Finance or Yahoo Finance: Track Your Portfolio. Start a mock portfolio with stocks and mutual funds and watch what happens!
- The Stock Market Game by the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association (SIFMA). Requires registering with WA state chapter.