

lairdnorton

WEALTH MANAGEMENT

JEANNE GOUSSEV

Managing Director of Fiduciary Services

Jeanne Goussev joined Laird Norton Wealth Management in 2016 as managing director of fiduciary services. Bringing to her work more than two decades of experience in trusts and wealth planning, Jeanne oversees LNWM's fiduciary team and manages our largest trust relationships. She is frequently sought out for her expertise on a wide variety of estate, philanthropic and tax planning matters. She is passionate about working at LNWM and the alignment between advising multiple generations within families on behalf of a firm that has been family owned for more than 50 years.

Prior to joining LNWM, Jeanne was managing director, client service at Threshold Group (now Tiedemann Advisors) and a member of the firm's Executive Committee. Previously, she was a vice president, client advisor at Whittier Trust Company and a senior trust officer at U.S. Trust/Bank of America Private Wealth Management.

Jeanne graduated from Bowdoin College, earned a Juris Doctor degree from Suffolk University Law School and is a Certified Trust and Financial Advisor, as well as an Accredited Estate Planner.

She currently serves on the board of trustees for Leave10, a nonprofit organization that encourages Puget Sound-area residents to commit to leaving at least 10 percent of their estates to charity. She is also a board member of the Northwest Maritime Center. Jeanne is actively involved with a number of other nonprofit and community focused organizations including the Washington Women's Foundation, Islandwood, where she served as co-chair of their women's retreat Circle of Friends, and Amara, where she serves on the development committee.

In 2018, Jeanne received the Champion for Children's award in recognition of her outstanding work as a volunteer on the Seattle Children's Legacy Advisors committee, her outreach on behalf of the hospital and her efforts to promote philanthropic planning and support advances in pediatric medicine at Seattle Children's Hospital.

Jeanne is an avid sailor and was the captain of a women's sailing team that won the Race to Alaska in 2018 – a 750-mile, unsupported race to Ketchikan. Her team was the first monohull and the first women's team to win the race.