

lairdnorton

WEALTH MANAGEMENT

JEANNE GOUSSEV

Managing Director of Fiduciary Services

Jeanne Goussev joined Laird Norton Wealth Management in 2016 as managing director of fiduciary services. Bringing to her work nearly two decades of experience in trusts and wealth planning, Jeanne oversees LNWM's fiduciary team and manages our largest trust relationships. She is frequently sought out for her expertise on a wide variety of estate, philanthropic and tax planning matters. She is passionate about working at LNWM and the alignment between advising multiple generations within families on behalf of a firm that has been family owned for more than 50 years.

Prior to joining LNWM, Jeanne was managing director, client service at Threshold Group and a member of the firm's Executive Committee. Previously, she was a vice president, client advisor at Whittier Trust Company and a senior trust officer at U.S. Trust/Bank of America Private Wealth Management.

Jeanne graduated from Bowdoin College, earned a Juris Doctor degree from Suffolk University Law School and is a Certified Trust and Financial Advisor, as well as an Accredited Estate Planner. She currently serves on the board of trustees for Seattle Estate Planning Council and Leave10, a nonprofit organization that encourages Puget Sound-area residents to commit to leaving at least 10 percent of their estates to charity, and as chairperson of the Washington chapter of the Purposeful Planning Institute. She is actively involved with a number of nonprofit and community focused organizations, including the Washington Planned Giving Council, Washington Women's Foundation, Kids Discovery Museum (KiDiMu) of Bainbridge Island, Islandwood, Childhaven, and Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Legacy Advisor Council, and she recently co-chaired the Seattle Children's Hospital Legacy Advisor Conference.