WEALTH MANAGEMENT

NADIA REYNOLDS

Director, Client Services

Nadia Reynolds joined Laird Norton Wealth Management in 2012 and is currently a director, client services. For more than 15 years, Nadia has been working with high-profile foundations and high-net-worth individuals, bringing to each of her relationships extensive experience as an investment advisor, portfolio manager and financial planner. She develops strategies that help her clients meet their short- and intermediate-term financial goals, while also allowing for the creation of a lasting legacy that reflects their goals and values.

Nadia has more than 15 years of experience in the wealth management industry. Prior to joining LNWM, she served as a senior wealth strategy associate at Coldstream Capital Management and at UBS Financial Services. At both these firms, she assisted in the planning and development of custom financial plans and investment strategies for high-net-worth individuals.

Nadia is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and holds a Bachelor of Arts in Government and International Politics from George Mason University. She serves on the finance committee of Recovery Café, a non-profit helping individuals struggling with homelessness, addiction and mental health challenges. She is also a member of Seattle Children's Legacy Advisors.
