RODNEY VAN BELLE

Director, Client Services

Rodney Van Belle joined Laird Norton Wealth Management in 2013 and is currently a director, client services. He advises both high-profile foundations and high-net-worth individuals, and he brings to each of his relationships more than 30 years of experience in all aspects of investment and financial management.

Rodney proposes and implements comprehensive solutions that address clients' unique challenges and needs while making the most of new opportunities. His overarching aim is to get tangible, positive results for each client, based on in-depth research and risk management. Rodney works closely with LNWM's investment team, as well as in-house tax, trust and estate planning experts, to put in place portfolios and plans that can stay on course even as markets and the economy change. Since 2019, Rodney has led Laird Norton University, an in-house training and education program that keeps LNWM staff up-to-date on all aspects of wealth planning.

Before joining Laird Norton Wealth Management, Rodney was a regulatory and operations supervisor at Wells Fargo Advisors. Prior to that, he worked at WaMu Capital in trading operations, Safeco Mutual Funds in client services, and at US Bancorp in investment management. Rodney was born and raised in the Yakima Valley of Washington State. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration from Central Washington University and is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™.
