SCOTT BUTTERFIELD

Chief Client Strategy Officer

Scott Butterfield is an owner, board member and chief client strategy officer at Laird Norton Wealth Management and serves as a lead advisor on client relationships. A CPA with more than 25 years of experience in financial services, he brings a wide array of expertise to his work helping high-net-worth families and individuals attain their life goals. Along with investment, tax, and wealth transfer strategies, Scott advises on complex ownership and estate planning structures, including multi-generational trusts and family partnerships.

Prior to joining Laird Norton Wealth Management (LNWM), Scott was a founder of Filament LLC, a wealth advisory firm which merged with LNWM in December 2020. Prior to that, Scott held senior leadership positions at the Quellos Group and Arthur Andersen's Private Client Services group. Scott has a Master's in Professional Accountancy (Taxation) and a BS in Accounting (cum laude) from the University of Utah. Scott is actively involved in local nonprofits focused on mentoring and coaching young people and is a former board member of Friends of the Children Seattle.
